Birkenhead School Bus Services

For those joining the School, the information provided below details the current School transport provision, including the routes and how to book a place, if it suits your family's needs.

We have engaged an experienced company – Vectare, to assist with the logistics of running the six routes. School operates these routes with its own drivers and vehicles. In the first instance, please make any initial enquiries to: enquire@birkenheadschool.co.uk. You may also like to view the various routes, the transport guide and lots more information via the Vectare website.

<https://birkenheadschool.vectare.co.uk/>

The charge for these services is based on the distance your pick-up point is from the School.

Under 10 miles is £430.00 per term and over 10 miles is £455.00 per term.

The Liverpool Bus Route is £455.00 per term.

Please note that the service is operated based on a termly charge and cannot be separated into specific days or one-way only. However, children should be booked on to individual days/times in order for the driver to be aware of when/who will be on each service.

A full terms notice of withdrawal is required.

Routes and stops are currently as outlined below. These are regularly reviewed, seeking to meet families needs, as best as is practical.

Merseytravel Bus Routes

There are four public bus services that students can use, with details provided below, to the best of our knowledge.

The times of the public bus services are shown on the following pages and are operated on behalf of Merseytravel by Als Coaches and Stagecoach.

For bus ticket/pass prices, please follow this link: <https://www.merseytravel.gov.uk/tickets-and-pricing/>

Please note: Students need to request the bus service by putting their hand out as the bus approaches at any bus stop on the routes shown.

Birkenhead School are not responsible for the provision of these services and cannot arrange replacements if they do not operate for any reason.
